

Teacher Report
Sept 20, 2022

1. Benchmark testing completed
2. New student adjusting to routine
3. Kids learning choreography, perspective drawing, radial symmetry, gestural line and movement, silhouette trees, watercolor backgrounds, invertebrates, invertebrate projects and 7th grade reports, plant lesson and booklets, Surface area, volume, carrying & borrowing, count by 2,5 10, learning ten's friends, counting money, Historic Fiction novel Nory Ryan's Song(Irish Potato Famine 1845-1852), Magic Tree House chapter books with comp questions and tests, Junie B. Jones read aloud. Constitution Day lessons, fine motor skill development activities for "Littles"... and more.
4. Planning on the color tour return trip from Krupp's to Greenland.
5. Planning field trip to Pumpkin Patch in October for kids to get their pumpkins to carve.
6. Planning field trip to Old Victoria to see the cabins, visit the mining camp, hike some trails and visit the ice caves.
7. Would like to renew Renaissance for Star reading and math quarterly testing and benchmarking needed for the state.